BR-127 Corridor Improvement Authority

Agenda – September 6, 2023

The Authority is charged with developing plans to finance the creation of enhanced infrastructure within the Development Area, and promote a superior environment for business and community activity.

The Authority will focus its attention on identifying those public improvements that are needed in the Development Area and which, if provided, will result in the improvement of existing business activity and stimulation of new private investment that is in keeping with the policies of DeWitt Charter Township.
